A BRIEF HISTORY

The Nelson Suter Art Society is unique in New Zealand, being based in a public gallery. It is one of the country's oldest art groups. As the Bishopdale Sketching Club, it was founded by Bishop Suter and friends in 1889, some 10 years before The Suter Te Aratoi o Whakatū opened.

The present Art Society is a voluntary organisation with administration and a role quite distinct from that of The Suter.

There is a long history of close cooperation between The Suter and the Nelson Suter Art Society.

The McKee Gallery is situated within The Suter and is operated by the Nelson Suter Art Society, who coordinate their own ongoing exhibition programme.

Artist Membership

The Society welcomes applications from new members. The Nelson Suter Art Society strives to maintain a high standard of exhibited works and whilst aiming to be as inclusive as possible ARTIST MEMBERSHIP is only approved for applicants who are currently active as artists and who show artistic merit, originality and technical competence in their chosen field. Graduates with recognised art qualifications are automatically accepted. There is a selection process for non art graduate applicants. If applying for selected membership please send in the completed application but no subscription fee. You will then be contacted and advised when to bring in your work for assessment.

Applying for Selected Artist Membership

- Applicants need to submit 4 pieces of current work for consideration by the selection panel. Selectors will be looking for a cohesive body of work and evidence of confidence in an established style.
- Works must be original, have the artist's name attached and be presented as you would for an exhibition.
- Works should be delivered to the front desk at the Suter at the end of February or August. The submission should include a CV or Resume, and/or artist's statement, accompanied by a list of your 4 works and possibly some photographs.
- Applicants will be notified of the panel's decision and advised regarding collection of works. Where submitted works are not considered to be of exhibition standard, applicants may be recommended to pursue further study and reapply at a later date.
- Selection decisions will not be subject to discussion

Assessments held in March and September
